USEFUL INFORMATION

CURRENCY AND BANKING

The currency used in Russia is called the Russian rouble (рубли). The easiest way to get roubles is by withdrawing them from ATMs. You can also buy roubles at banks. Credit and debit cards are widely accepted in Moscow. Visa and Mastercard are the most popular, with fewer places accepting American Express, UnionPay or Diners Club.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Moscow has an extensive public transit system including the Moscow Metro, buses, trolleybuses, and trams. You can either buy a ticket ("All-in-one" or Troika) at a metro station cash desk or use a contactless card (Visa, Mastercard, Mir, UnionPay) with a validator in any above-ground public transport or at special pay-gates in the Moscow Metro.

TAXI

To order a taxi it is best to use the Yandex GO app. It is convenient, affordable and safe. The app supports several languages and payment methods. We don't recommend taking unofficial taxis.
